False reports of State of Emergency in Quartzsite!

Quartzsite Town Council met in an emergency meeting earlier today to handle the recent throngs of death threats made to council members and QPD officers. Mayor Ed Foster claimed to media around the state that the Council declared a State of Emergency and Martial law. According to AZ Central he is now back-peddling that claim. According to many reliable sources, there is no State of Emergency in Quartzsite, Arizona!! There will be an announcement within 24 hours of the council's decisions.

Please stay calm everyone and get the facts straight before sending fear out into the public!!!

Apparently ccouncil declared an emergency to cancel Tuesday night's meeting and to deal with the rising crisis brought about by Jennifer Jade Jones and Mayor Ed Foster with their recent interviews and Internet drama. Evidently there were so many threats of violence and disruption to town officials and town hall to cause concern for officials' safety.
